

wren 2011

Agenda

Thursday, May 19 – Webinar, available to registered participants

9:15–9:30<sub>AM</sub> Welcome and Introductions

Occupational Health

9:30–10:00 Corey Campbell, CO, "Incorporating Occupational Health into a Public Health Investigation of an Escherichia coli O111 Outbreak Associated with a Correctional Facility Dairy, Colorado 2010"

10:00–10:30 April Jeter, CA, "An Emerging Hazard: Toxicity from Methyl Bromide that Re-Accumulates around Fumigated Produce in Storage"

Surveillance

10:30–11:00 Dennis Shusterman, CA, "Analysis of Female Reproductive Concerns from a Workplace Hazard Helpline"

11:00–11:30 Galatea King, CA, "Tracking Environmental Health in California: A Demonstration of the CEHTP Web-based Portal"

11:30–noon Nino Yanga, CA, "Taking the First Steps towards a Bi-National Pesticide Illness Surveillance System between the U.S. and Mexico"

noon–1:00<sub>PM</sub> Lunch break

Emergency Preparedness

1:00–1:30 Michael Heumann, OR, "Status of State-level Radiation Emergency Preparedness and Response Capabilities"

1:30–2:00 Susana Tat, CA, "Tracking Your POD? There's an App for That!"

Data, Biomonitoring

2:00–2:30 Louise Mehler, CA, "Electronic Data Exchange and the California Pesticide Illness Surveillance Program"

2:30–3:00 Lauren Joe, CA, "Exploring the Association Between Fish Consumption Rates and Blood Mercury Levels"

Investigations

3:00–3:30 Zeynep Shorter, WA, "Level of Trauma Care and Discharge Disposition of Surviving Adult Trauma Patients"

3:30–4:00 Sumi Hoshiko, CA, "Birth Defects, Pesticides, and Water in Kettleman City: How a Small Farming Town in the Central Valley of California Became an International Media Story"

Special topic

4:00–4:30 Margy Gassell, CA, "Environmental and Health Impacts of Marine Plastic Debris"

4:30<sub>PM</sub> Wrap up