

WREN 2013

Featuring the best in environmental and occupational health, chronic disease prevention, injury control, and emergency preparedness

Agenda

Thursday, May 16 – Webinar; available to registered participants. Register at www.WRENConference.org.

9:15_{AM} Welcome and Introductions

Injury

9:30 Roger Trent, CA. “Patient Falls Occurring in California Acute Care Hospitals: Age Factors”

Healthy Homes

10:00 Rad Cunningham, WA. “Launching a Healthy Homes Initiative in Washington State”

10:30 Janet Tobacman, CA. “California Breathing: Healthy homes in the Golden State”

10:45 Morning break

Exposure

11:00 Leilani Schwarcz, NM. “Arsenic Exposure in a New Mexico Urban Community on Well Water: Preliminary Findings and Outreach”

11:30 Jill Schulte, WA. “Diesel Exhaust Exposure in South Seattle: A Community Engagement Study”

noon–1:30_{PM} Lunch break

Emergency Preparedness and Disasters

1:30 Rebecca Cohen and Karen Tait, CA. “Community Assessment for Public Health Emergency Response (CASPER): County and State Perspectives on Evaluating Emergency Response in Lake County, California, November 2012”

2:20 Afternoon break

Emergency Preparedness and Disasters, continued

2:30 Judy Bardin, WA. “2012 Washington State Wildfires and Public Health Impacts”

3:00 Michael Heumann, OR. “Disaster Epidemiology: An Overview of the Role of Environmental and Occupational Epidemiology in Disaster Response”

Occupational Health

3:30 Jason Wilken, CA. “Preliminary Report of an Outbreak of Coccidioidomycosis Among Solar Power Farm Construction Workers — California, 2012–2013”

4:00_{PM} Wrap up